GENDER ECONOMIC GOVERNANCE PARTNERS SINCE 2010

“Globally, Countries Lose $160 Trillion in Wealth Due to Earnings Gaps Between Women and Men.”

“HUMAN CAPITAL WEALTH ACCOUNTS FOR TWO-THIRDS OF THE GLOBAL CHANGING WEALTH OF NATIONS, WELL AHEAD OF NATURAL AND OTHER FORMS OF CAPITAL,” SAID WORLD BANK GROUP LEAD ECONOMIST AND AUTHOR OF THE REPORT QUENTIN WODON. “BECAUSE WOMEN EARN LESS THAN MEN, HUMAN CAPITAL WEALTH WORLDWIDE IS ABOUT 20 PERCENT LOWER THAN IT COULD BE.”

FEATURED REVIEWS

Leena Nair - Chief Human Resources Unilever

Amelia's customer orientation, business understanding, execution focus is top class. I have no doubt that she will excel at whatever she takes up given her "can do" positive mindset, creative thinking, humility, adaptability and her ability to collaborate across boundaries.

Arnaud Thyssen - CEO European Business Summit

I've had the pleasure to work with Amelia during the annual European Business Summits and it has been a pleasure each time. She is very professional, diplomatic and highly-skilled in maintaining good working relations with her team as well as with external analysts.

Christine Lagarde - President of the European Central Bank

Amelia possesses many qualities which make working with her a pleasure- but most of all I appreciate her respect for deadlines and her ability to detect gaps and inconsistencies, highlight interesting information and extract the essence of arguments.
